

What is F-Art?

What does it stand for?

F-Art stands for no one. F-Art-ists remain seated during the national anthem. Will you all rise? F-Art says, NO.

F-Art is Fake Art. All art is fake. The F-Art group accepts this as wholly true. There is no originality. F-Art rejects the jargon of authenticity and its petty kneeling subservient theology. Picasso is not god or Pan. All Picasso's are fake.

F-Art is Free Art. Art without a price tag. F-Art rejects the art market as money laundering for scoundrels. Every piece of "art" in the museum has blood on it. It is all stolen. It is all fake.

F-Art rejects Personal Style Art. Style is the straight jacket for the mad artist. The artist is insane because once she has a style she is ever condemned to repeat the same damn thing. We will do whatever we want whenever we want. We refuse to make art. We refuse to be arty. We refuse to be creative. We refuse to be dull.

F-Art is Flatulent Art. We recognize the anality of art. We acknowledge that art is playing with shit. We recognize that art stinks. Life flatulence, art smells sickly sweet to the flatulator but disgusting to others. We reserve the right to disgust you.

F-Art is Failed Art. We reserve the right to remain art failures. We reject the idea that we are geniuses because our art sells. Shit sells. Our failed art is not for sale, we will not be bought. Our art is our own free activity and you cannot have it. We revel in our failure to make good art. If our art is not good we must be doing something right.

F-Art means Fuck Art. Yes, Fuck Art! It's all so boring and it's all so over. What is the difference between Damien Hirst and Ronald McDonald (sic)? Over 1 million paintings sold here. Thomas Kinkade and Damien Hirst are the same person. Why buy it if you can do it yourself?

F-Art is Fine Art. Artists should be fined for polluting. Stop already! Since art historians, art critics, hipper-than-thou art galleries, and art museums are basically in the business of money laundering for scoundrels who pollute, steal and impoverish, all art should be taxed. Tax art to death. Art history is merely advertising for Christie's. No one buys these monstrous books.
